

Screen Recorder is a PC based application which captures desktop activities and uploads it to live web server at regular interval of times. End-user can view those images on the pre-specified web URL. User can broadcast those images by giving user name and password. So anybody can see those desktop recordings from any place at any time.

Features

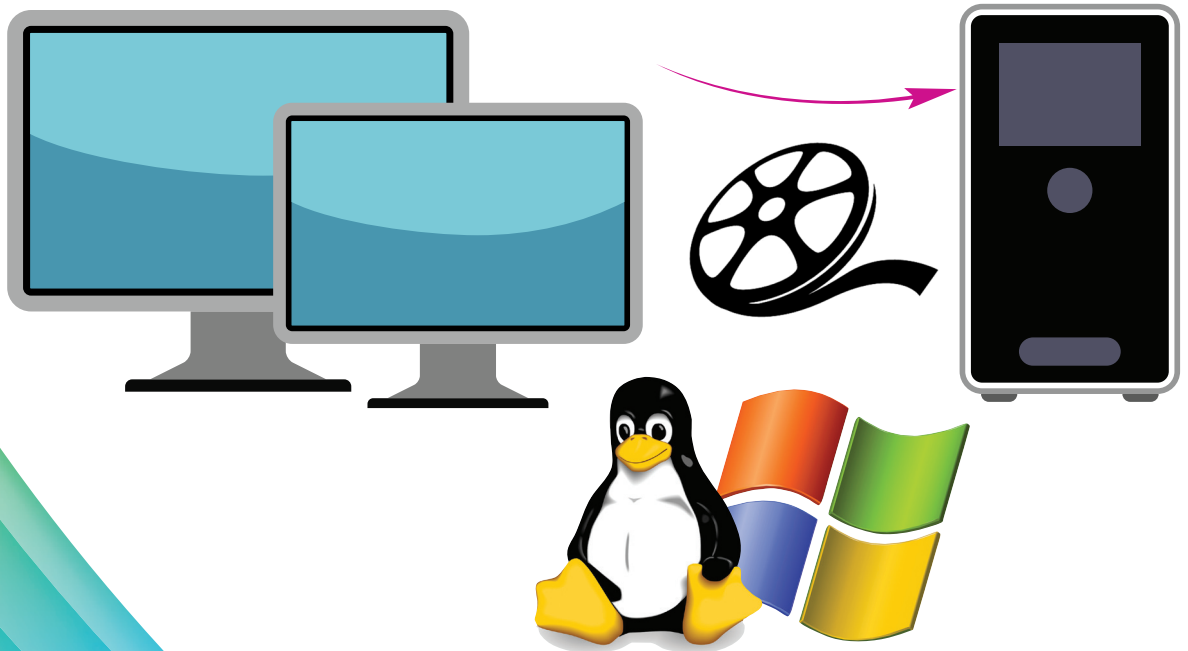

1. Works as background application.
2. Automatically record multiple computer screen simultaneously on website.
3. Can configure recording period.
4. Web user can replay screens of any user of any past period.
5. Facility to auto overwrite old storage based on speck allocation.
6. Can work on any Operating system which support Java (J2SE).

Applications

1. Monitor work of your employees spread across multiple locations.
2. Use it to monitor work given on T&M basis to outsource agency.
3. Use it as a user behavior study tool.
4. Can be used for multi broadcast tool for any application view from multiple location like control room data without any modification to your applications.

Benefits

1. Better Productivity and Control on remote workers.
2. Easily make any desktop app view on Web for multiple user simultaneously.

Now monitor every activity on your personal computer