

Automated Security Guard Recruitment System

The Automated Security Guard Recruitment System measures the physical fitness of a person using automated mechanism with complete video records and helps in making security guard recruitment process faster, transparent and free of human interference.

Physical Fitness Tests

1. Height/weight measurement using BMI machine.
2. Running time measurement using RFID.
3. Long jump measurement using sensors.
4. Shortput measurement.

Who all can use it

1. Army.
2. Police.
3. Security guard agencies.
4. Other department who recruit security guards.

Features

1. Allow running time measurement using RFID/sensors.
2. Allows long jump measurement using sensors.
3. Records video of all the tests and available to anyone for review at later date or time.
4. Height/weight are automatically captured using BMI machine.
5. Fingerprint and photo are recorded to avoid impersonalization.
6. System allows to generate different kind of MIS reports.
7. Results are printed on real time basis.
8. System can exchange data with other online system for candidate details etc.

How much it cost

System is available on both purchase mode and on rental basis where we charge on per candidate basis.

Recruit the best person for your security!